EAST TROY RAILROAD

Welcomes you to its 114th season

Welcome to the East Troy Electric Railroad! We hope that you enjoy your time here. Sit back and relax as we take you on a journey back in time.

As we roll into another year, we are thankful to be entering the railroad's 114th year of continuous operation!

As everyone knows, 2020 was not what anyone expected. We operated at reduced capacity last year, with many safety protocols in place, and those safety measures will remain in place to start 2021. We hope you will help us celebrate a return to normal operations as the season progresses.

Meanwhile, plan to enjoy one of our popular Dinner Trains, offering you a choice of first class dining experiences with fantastic three- or four-course meals, a family-oriented Picnic Train, or you might enjoy our new Sunday Brunch Trains! Our popular Burger Train will depart May 15. Or check out our new "Local Motive" Train featuring locally sourced food and drink on Sept. 11. The Beer Tasting Train returns on Sept. 4. Remember, you can charter your own train too – with or without food.

This year, our regular season ends on Sept. 5 and we are again offering reserved seating on our "Harvest Fest" Trains on Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays through the end of October. Please see our website for details and schedules – and purchase your tickets in advance.

Harvest Fest and Christmas Train tickets will be posted for sale by late summer.

Then, join Santa and his friends for a magical journey filled with carols and hot chocolate on our Christmas Trains! Our heated trolleys will take you on a journey to the Elegant Farmer where guests can visit Santa's Workshop! (Nov. 26, 27 and 28, and Dec. 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18 and 19).

Remember that this museum would not function without its wonderful team of volunteers. Our group of dedicated volunteers will do their best to give you a memorable experience. Interested in joining the group? Please ask a volunteer about opportunities. No matter what talent you might be able to bring to the table, we welcome your help!

Because we are an electric railroad, we ask that you do not touch anything under our cars. Safety is the most important thing, so please inform any of our volunteers if you see an unsafe situation.

Finally, if you are thinking about visiting us more than once, you might consider becoming a member. The benefits include unlimited free rides for a year, a 10% discount in the gift shop, a quarterly member newsletter and access to member-only events! Stop by the depot counter for more information!

On behalf of all the members of the museum, I would like to thank you for helping us preserve this wonderful piece of history! Please tell 50 of your closest friends about us and see you again soon!

Restoration of historic North Shore Car 761 is nearly done

As this newspaper goes to print, volunteers at the East Troy Railroad are nearly finished with restoration work on Chicago North Shore & Milwaukee Car 761.

Thanks to several generous donors and a grant from the Emery Rail Heritage Trust, work continued throughout 2020 in spite of the pandemic and reduced income at the railroad. The car should take its first trip down the line soon, though the team discovered a broken leaf spring that will have to be repaired before the car can become a regular on the line.

The Chicago North Shore & Milwaukee Railroad ran between the Loop in downtown Chicago and 6th Street in downtown Milwaukee from 1916 through January of 1963. Railroad historian and photographer William Middleton described the North Shore Line as a “super interurban.” There are still many people today who remember the North Shore Line fondly and remember riding on the line.

North Shore Car 761 was one of 25 new interurban coaches ordered from the Standard Steel Car Company in Butler, Pennsylvania, in 1930. In 1949 the car was modernized and in 1957 it was repainted in the “Silverliner” paint scheme. The car is 55 feet long, weighs 103,800 pounds and rides on two Baldwin 84-30AA trucks. The car was in service on the North Shore Line through 1963, when the North Shore Line ceased operation.

“We want Car 761 back in service so we can showcase another interurban car with Wisconsin history,” East Troy Railroad Museum,

President Ryan Jonas said. “Our historic railroad runs on the only remaining electric interurban track in the state.”

In addition to the structural work needed on both ends, Car 761 needed body work, needed to be repainted inside and out, needed new flooring, needed the seats reupholstered, needed the electrical system cleaned, repaired and tested, needed the brake lines and control stands reinstalled, needed new doors and new glass installed, and needed the stairways reinstalled on both ends.

All this work, and much more, is nearly finished and we look forward to a grand ribbon-cutting ceremony sometime this summer.

Museum acquires new Chicago elevated car

Chicago Elevated Car 4439 is the most recent addition to the East Troy Railroad Museum’s rolling stock collection. Over The Top Construction moved the car from The Toledo, Lake Erie & Western Railway and Museum in Grand Rapids, OH, with delivery to the East Troy Railroad’s Maintenance Facility on Oct. 26, 2020.

The car was built by the Cincinnati Car Company in 1924 for the Chicago Rapid Transit, which was renamed the Chicago Transit Authority in 1947. Its initial retirement date was listed as 1973, but it was not listed as “totally out of service” until 1975. The car is 48 feet long, weighs 46,000 pounds, has seating for 52, and runs on Baldwin trucks.

The maintenance team knew the traction motors in the east end of the car were shot, so they worked to refurbish a spare truck so it was ready for the car upon its arrival in East Troy. The wheels on the west-end truck will need to be turned to return them to a correct profile and some electrical work on the lighting needs to be done, but this car looks like it can be added to the operating roster relatively soon.

We depend largely upon donations to fund restorations of our historic equipment. We are thrilled with the many donors who stepped up in Car 4439 in the Maintenance Facility in late October 2020.

SUBMITTED PHOTO Trolley Times

2020 to make contributions that allowed our work to move forward – and even provided enough to acquire a new car!

If you would like to contribute toward future restorations, or would like to provide general support for our operating expenses, please visit the donation page on our website at www.eastroyr.org/donate.html.

You may also send a check payable to the East Troy Railroad Museum to:

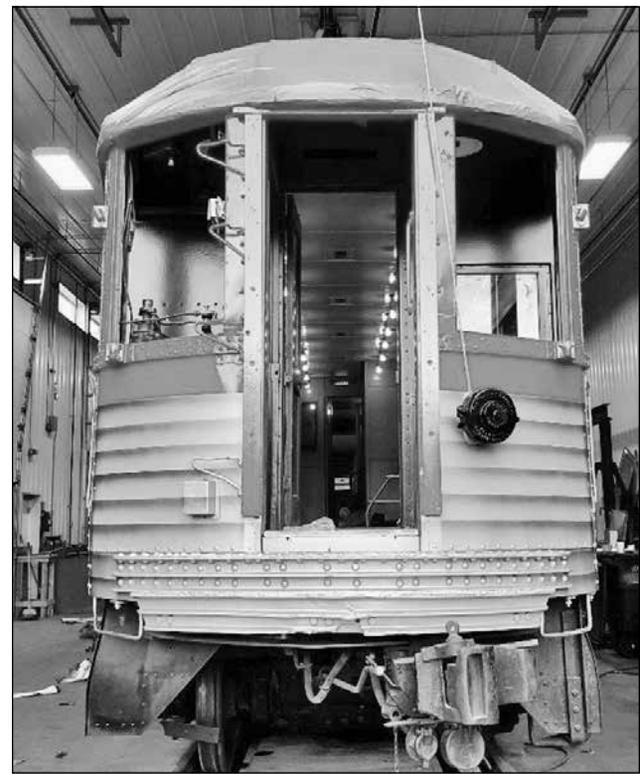

East Troy Railroad Museum
P.O. Box 943,
East Troy, WI 53120

We can also receive gifts of common stock, which allows a donor to take a deduction of the value of the stock, while avoiding the capital gains associated with selling the stock themselves. All donations are tax-deductible to the fullest extent of the law.

The interior of the car has been stripped and repainted, new flooring is in place, new lighting fixtures installed, the luggage racks re-plated and reinstalled, and the window shades repaired and replaced.

2021 Lineup of Events

Railfan Day/Railfest

Saturday, June 19

On Railfan Day we take all of our equipment out of the barn and put it on display. You can ride a different rail car on each trip of the day. Once again this year, we are also offering fun family activities like model railroad car building, miniature train rides, and operating model railroads.

Chicago and Military Day

Several National Park Rangers from Indiana Dunes National Park may be on hand to explain the history of the South Shore Line.

This year we are offering free tickets to active duty military members and to veterans in uniform. Join us for a fun-filled day reliving Chicago rail history while honoring those who serve in our military.

Beer Tasting Train

Saturday, Sept. 4

Join us for a fun and educational beer tasting train! Enjoy five different beers while traveling the route of the East Troy Electric Railroad. The train runs as a joint event with Black Point Estate on Geneva Lake.

A historian and beer aficionado from Black Point serves as our host, and Toothpicks, our wonderful caterer, provides the hors d'oeuvres. This 2-1/2-hour event starts and finishes at the East Troy Depot. Book your seats online under our Dinner Train heading at easttroymuseum.org.

Full Moon Ride

Charter your own train!

The East Troy Railroad Museum offers private charters designed to meet your specific needs, from business lunches to anniversary parties.

Chartered trips may make stopovers with advanced planning. There are two parks along our route, plus the Elegant Farmer. You can customize your event by providing live entertainment, bringing your own special food, adding displays, giving business presentations, or just riding the rails. You can also choose from several luncheon or dinner menus developed specifically for our Charter Services.

For special occasions, table arrangements may be reconfigured to accommodate musicians, wedding cakes, displays, or anything else you want. Just give us a call to work out the details.

The railroad operates charters from mid-May through October and they may be arranged for any day of the week.

Charters can be from 30 minutes to two hours in length and can be extended for an additional charge. Docents aboard each train will also share the history of the railroad.

For more information or to make reservations, email info@easttroymuseum.org or call 262-684-9148.

Why not join our volunteer family?

For people who volunteer at the East Troy Railroad Museum, it feels like you become part of a second family – only this family runs a railroad. And we need every member of the family to do his or her part to make it a smooth-running operation. It is challenging, it is fun, it is educational and you know your work is appreciated.

Some volunteers can only give a couple of days a month and others may put in 150 days a year. Some want to work in areas where they bring experience and are comfortable with the tasks. Others want to be challenged by learning new skills and look forward to doing something completely different than what they do in their “day jobs.”

The variety of tasks needed to operate a railroad and museum give people plenty of options. So let us know what interests you. From selling merchandise in the gift shop to being a motorman (or woman) on our trains, there are many different kinds of people using many different kinds of skills here.

What we all have in common, though, is a desire to see things happen. This is the motivation that brings us out to the line and keeps us coming back regularly. We all know that whatever our contributions, they are needed to keep this historic line alive and growing.

Some of us will be singled out for recognition in the volunteer events throughout the year, but any of us would quickly tell you that we don't do it for the cheers of our peers. We get all the gratification we need by simply accomplishing something we believe to be important and worthwhile.

We invite you to stop on out and visit the museum to talk with one or more of the volunteers about what it's like to work here. Some interesting, involving, and rewarding tasks await you. Or, call us at 262-642-3263 and ask about getting involved.

See you out there!

Volunteers Haylee Wilcox, Dustin Robinson, Alex Hummel and Alex Wilcox are ready to work.

This means you can go to more than 1,100 museums, zoos and botanical gardens for free or at a significantly reduced rate. Fine dining on the East Troy Railroad Since 1992, the East Troy Railroad Museum has been proud to offer elegant Dinner Train experiences to our guests from around the world.

Our Dinner Train takes passengers on a two-hour journey over our picturesque line. Salads and appetizers are preset on tables as our guests board the train. Soon a delicious entrée is delivered to the tables, to be enjoyed while beautiful scenery passes by the picture windows.

The Dinner Train travels past the Elegant Farmer stop and pauses along the shore of Lower Phantom Lake. Here, passengers hear a brief talk about the history of the line, the cars they are riding in and of course, the famous legend of Lower Phantom Lake! Sunsets across the lake are beautiful when viewed from this spot.

When you come, we hope you'll share your experience on social media. There should be a number of what we used to call "Kodak Moments," both inside and outside the cars.

It is not uncommon to see swans on the lake along with other birds. After visiting the lake, our train pulls across Highway ES and into Indianhead Park in Mukwonago. Here, guests are offered the chance to get off the train to stretch their legs, get some pictures and enjoy the park. After about 15 minutes, we re-board the train and head back to East Troy while enjoying dessert and coffee – or after dinner drinks. After all, we are in Wisconsin, so bar service is available!

A common question we have received in the past is; "Can we bring our young child on the Dinner Train?"

Our Dinner Train is really designed for adults, but we have designed our Picnic Train to be perfect for families with young children. See Page 4 to find out more about the Picnic Train.

About our dining cars

Starting with two retired South Shore cars built in 1927, our volunteers completely remodeled them, stripping out the old seats and installing new carpeting, tables, bars and custom mahogany woodwork. Both cars are decorated in the "art deco" style with Car 24 displaying more greens and car 25 displaying more pinks.

When it came time to name our two dining cars, the volunteers chose "Ravenswood" and "Beverly Shores," representing two stations along the South Shore Line where the cars stopped for 60 years.

These cars were recently outfitted with new picture windows, plus the updated air conditioning systems feature pinpoint ionization systems that purify the air and help kill viruses of all kinds.

Early in the 2021 season you will note that seating will be limited so that parties can be separated to provide for additional safety. Masks must be worn to board the train, but may be removed for eating and drinking. Please note that the entire train is a no-smoking environment.

Prepaid reservations are required at least one day prior to event. Tickets can be purchased at the railroad's website or by calling 262-642-3263.

How Lauber's Ice Cream Parlor came to East Troy

John Lauber grew up in Milwaukee in the 1950s and 1960s, at a time when there were still many 1930s vintage drugstore soda fountains in operation, especially in the older parts of the city where his grandparents lived. He enjoyed stepping into these drugstores for an ice cream soda, hot fudge sundae or Green River.

In 1969 his great-uncle, Alfred Meyer died, and John received a number of soda fountain items from Meyer's Pharmacy – his great-uncle's store.

In addition to enjoying old-time soda fountains, John liked electric trolleys and had been a founding member of The Wisconsin Electric Railway Historical Society, which moved its collection of old trolleys to East Troy in 1972. The society had begun operating a museum and offering trolley rides on the weekends.

In 1973, John was driving down Burleigh Street and saw people carrying boxes out of Rilling's Drug Store, throwing them into a dumpster. When he stopped to find out what was going on, he found that Mr. Rilling had suffered a stroke and his family was closing – and emptying – the store. John made an offer on the store fixtures and found himself the owner of an original 1930's drugstore, without a home.

Meanwhile, back in East Troy, John had noticed a vacant building right across the tracks from the East Troy Depot. He arranged to rent the building from Equity Co-op, re-assembled the drug store fixtures in the new location, and opened Lauber's Ice Cream Parlor in 1974.

Since then, for 47 years, Lauber's has been providing visitors with a truly authentic 1930s soda fountain experience. It has always been John's goal to make entering Lauber's just like going into the corner drug store 90 years ago.

The worn hardwood floor, tongue and groove ceiling and vintage light fixtures hanging from chains carry you back to the 1930s. Original equipment, including malt mixers, dispensers, scoops, and other items from the 1930s and 1940s were acquired and continue to be used in making ice cream

Vintage style sundae dishes and glassware are used to serve treats to your table.

The old cabinets around the store, which once contained pharmaceuticals, now hold an array of ice cream collectables: mixers, scoops, dispensers, and vintage advertising.

Others still hold vintage drug store items and packaging. The grocery section, from a store at 16th and Mitchell, has a display of grocery items and hosts a large candy counter using vintage containers to display the candy. A 1950 Seeburg jukebox plays hits from the 1920s to the 1950s.

John wants everyone to know that Lauber's is not self-service and it is not fast food. He asks you to allow enough time to sit back and enjoy the experience, not just the ice cream.

Lauber's is open May through October. Summer hours are Monday through Thursday from noon to 10 p.m., and Friday through Sunday from 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Welcome to East Troy!

By Vanessa Lenz

EAST TROY CHAMBER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The East Troy Area Chamber of Commerce welcomes you to East Troy. We've missed you and are so glad that we're able to be together in person.

We know you'll enjoy your visit to the East Troy Electric Railroad, Wisconsin's last original electric railroad line.

After your ride, we hope you'll get out and about to discover all of the great places to go and things to do in the area.

There's a lot to see and do in our town. If you're wondering where to start, I'd suggest taking a cue from John McGivern.

When he visited East Troy a few years ago to film his popular PBS show "Around the Corner with John McGivern," our town topped his list of places to go that are chock-full of experiences to check off your bucket list. The Emmy Award-winning actor explored what it's like to live, work and play like a local and narrowed down the absolute must-do East Troy places & activities.

This includes catching an outdoor show while surrounded by the signature hills of the famous Alpine Valley Music Theatre.

When the temperatures are cooler, grab your skis and snowboards and zip down the hill at Alpine Valley Resort.

A top bucket list item for adventure enthusiasts is a visit to East Troy Municipal Airport, home to more than 100 aircraft and the adjacent Sky Dive Milwaukee, which has been training jump students for more than 50 years. If you've ever wanted to feel the proverbial heartbeat of East Troy, check out our most notable landmark, East Troy Village Square Park, which has a long history as the backdrop for community events like the 27th annual East Troy Bluegrass Festival, Brewfest, Memorial Day Weekend Corn and Brat Roast and East Troy Lights.

If your journey to surrounding businesses, you'll also find historic sights, high quality dining, shops, including East Troy's first bookstore, a beautiful café, our newest addition, East Troy Brewery, and everything you need for a perfect day or night away.

If you're more of a nature lover, East Troy will capture your heart with its striking waterfronts and flourishing green space. Ten local lakes and three state natural areas are all located within two miles of downtown.

This list features tips on how to make the most of your trip: what to see, what to do and insider secrets.

For to-the-minute updates and information on COVID-19 safety measures and hours, check out easttroy.org and individual business websites.

Feel free to email any questions to: vanessa@easttroy.org.
